I don't like to talk cuz talking's not cool

The endless nights

The boring days the times I let you believe that I was here to stay.

My head shakes when I sleep too long and my mom cries when I sing this song why can't I be like you?

You say things that don't make much sense like the days you did or the money you spent why can't I be so cool

My heart breaks at the drop of a dime and I freak out when I lose my mind
why can't I be like you

I need you and I need to fuck but I talked to you and you don't say much why can't I keep my cool

What we one said
was funny
we fucked
it up.
All these ideas are running out.
We're growing
